MILLVILLE

July 14—A party of Salem and Washingtonville Foresters, numbering sixty in all, held a picnic in Shoen's Grove Sunday. The day was pleasantly spent in games but was somewhat marred by the heavy storm. Mr. Frederick of Springfield is helping his brother, Floyd Frederick, through harvest.

The Home Circle was pleasantly entertained last Thursday by Mrs. A. B. Coy at her home near here. Fancy work was a diversion and a delicious lunch was served.

Harry Hartzell is shipping cherries to Pittsburgh. Mrs. David Fogg of Salem spent Friday here with her sisters. J. F. Terry of Sharon was in the village a few hours Sunday.

Earl Jurey and Miss Ada Campbell of Oil City and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker of Franklin, Pa., who are on an automobile trip through northern Ohio, stopped for a few hours Thursday at the home of Harry Holland.

George Crutchley was in Youngstown Thursday. The Chamber of Commerce of Salem is offering five prizes amounting to $25 in gold in a "Trade in Salem" contest inaugurated Saturday. These are to be given to the authors of the five best reasons for trading in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. John Howells and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Lipplatt. Abram Zimmerman has had a new roof put on his barn. Bills have been posted advertising the Chautauqua to be held in Salem in August.

W. A. Dysart and family of Bellewood, Pa., have returned home after a week's visit at the home of William Archer near here.

Mrs. George Orr and Mrs. John Lipplatt spent Wednesday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Oesch, near Damascus.

A patriotic program pertaining to the observance of the Fourth of July was an interesting feature during the lecture hour at a recent meeting of Perry grange. A talk on the national holiday, what it means and how it should be observed by Lecturer Mrs. Mary McConner was an interesting number as well as short addresses on the same subject by Lewis Fawcett and Glenn Belz. Musical numbers were given and young men concluded the program.

Mart Bell, formerly of this place, and Mrs. Laura Grimm of Washingtonville were united in marriage at Lisbon last Thursday morning. Mr. Bell is employed by the Buckeye Engine Co. at Salem and after a short trip he will make their home in Salem.

Residents of this community are interested in the report that the Salem Chamber of Commerce is soon to establish in Salem a rest room for ladies. This is needed and that has long been needed and will be greatly appreciated by rural shoppers.

The Bel Tel Club, which numbers among its members several from this community, was entertained by Mrs. Jesse Perkins in Salem Thursday afternoon. The guests were interested in needlework. A meeting will be held again in two weeks. Ralph Arner of Youngstown spent Sunday at his home here.

BLANCO

July 14—Mrs. Mella Porter and grandson, Dana Mead, spent Sunday with Sam Porter and family of Paymyra. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Renkenberger were Sunday callers on George G. Swank, Jr.

Walter Keeler of Diamond spent Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Weaver. Mrs. E. Kale and daughter Zella were in Youngstown Friday.

Mrs. W. F. Renkenberger visited relatives in Warren and Niles last week.

Mrs. Carlos Cover and baby spent a few days recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Williamson. Jacob Helsel transacted business in North Jackson Saturday.

James Weaver was in Alliance Tuesday. H. E. Kale and family spent Sunday at E. Kale's.

Mrs. Martha Rosenbaum spent a few days the last of the week with Mrs. Frank Force. Most of the people around here attended the social at Lincoln Snook's, Saturday night, given by the building committee of Milton grange. A most enjoyable time was had by all.

NORTH JACKSON

July 14—Clara Reebel on Monday went to Warren where she is employed in the home of V. C. Thompson, the former girl, Miss Rutha Stroup, of this place having been married last week to Mr. Hardesty of Warren.

Miss Vinnie Warner of Lisbon visited several days at R. E. Flick's. Mrs. Frank Howard is entertaining friends from New Castle.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mohrman and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mohrman were in Youngstown Sunday. Will Wanamaker of Washington, D. C., made a flying visit through here last week on his way to Cleveland to see his sister Lulu who is in a hospital.

V. C. Thompson and family of Warren spent Sunday at J. R. Thompson's. Mrs. Levi Greenawalt was in Canfield Monday.

Mrs. Tillie Wanamaker is in Kent. George Witherstone of Warren called here Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Flick were in Lordstown Sunday.

Lots of wheat being cut these days and it is a good crop. Spencer Sline of Warren spent Sunday here. It is expected that the road to the brick road from here to Austintown is fine and promises to be a great speedway.

HEROES IN EVERYDAY LIFE

SHADY HOLLOW

July 14—Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rothgeb spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clemons.

O. H. Paulin and family and H. C. Heintzelman and family were in Columbiana Saturday evening. Paul Simon and family of Boardman spent Sunday evening at O. H. Paulin's.

Master Robert Williams is taking a vacation at Brady Lake. David Smets, wife and two daughters of Canton spent Saturday night at H. C. Heintzelman's and called on other relatives Sunday.

Mary Bare is staying with her sister, Mrs. Alvin Knopp, of Washingtonville helping to pick berries. H. C. Heintzelman and son were the first to cut wheat.

G. L. Minard is hauling logs to the Canfield handle factory. C. L. Meeker and F. C. Heintzelman were in North Lima Monday evening.

The festival in Thoman's grove was a success—nice weather and a big crowd. The ladies cleared $35. Wm. Halt, Elias Bare, John Van Fossen and H. C. Heintzelman bought an ensilage cutter from Calvin Witmer. O. H. Paulin will furnish the power for them. They expect to help others in filling their silos.

M. C. Rice and family of Youngstown spent Sunday at A. P. Lloyd's. He is having his wheat cut today by Wm. Halt and Jonas Christman.

George Messerly and Wm. Savers were in Youngstown Sunday evening. E. P. Rothgeb has a Ford touring car. Wm. Dietrich and son scraped our road Saturday. It is fine now.

Clark Paulin and wife were at Lloyd Snyder's Saturday evening. Mr. Smith and lady friend, Miss Quirey, and Grace and Emma Heck of Columbiana spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dietrich.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Halt and Mr. and Mrs. Clem Dietrich were in Struthers Monday evening. Dorothy Wertz spent Thursday and Friday in Youngstown.

Erma Ackerman of Woodworth spent Thursday and Friday in Youngstown. Erma Ackerman of Woodworth spent Saturday night with Dorothy Wertz.

Lisle Hass spent Sunday with his parents in North Lima. The wheat crop is good and the harvest is on. Subscribe for the Dispatch and get the news that you and yours are most interested in. One dollar pays for a whole year.

EAST LEWISTOWN

July 14—On account of the heavy traffic over the Mill Creek bridge the matter of widening the bridge is being agitated.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Shaffer of Pennsylvania spent Sunday and Monday here with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Burns. Patrolman Painter is helping M. M. Mellinger with his harvest work.

J. H. Engler, our former blacksmith, left Monday for Lynn street in Canfield township to assist A. S. Lynn with his summer work. Harry Sprinkel of North Lima was here Monday on a business mission.

Misses Elsie and Olive Boston called Sunday afternoon at the home of Frank Crumbracker. A considerable number of people in the neighborhood are attending the horse races at Southern park this week.

H. L. Burns and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Davis spent last Sunday at the home of Henry Lehman in Green township.

Mr. and Mrs. G. McClun of Island spent last Saturday here with the latter's mother, Mrs. John Burns. Joshua Bailey and family of Wapakoneta, O., are spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Mel Beard.

Martin Coy has a new and easy way to pick cherries; cut off the limbs and the work is simple enough. Recent rains delayed farmers with their work, making laying a little late and the cultivating of corn and potatoes difficult.

With the coming of telephones and automobiles the farmer is strictly in it, being able to keep in just as close touch with affairs as people who live in the cities and towns. And then they have the best of it by being residents of the country where fresh air is plenty and there is elbow room for all. It is the rural districts for us.

The festival held last Saturday night at the home of George Brooks, west of the village, was largely attended and the affair was a most enjoyable one.

There surely is oil in Beaver township and gas, too, but the trouble in the past seems to have been to locate these great helps to mankind.

NEW BUFFALO

July 14—The ice cream and cake festival in Alvin Thoman's woods, east of New Buffalo last Saturday night netted the Ladies' Aid Society of the Reformed church $38. The evening was pleasant and a large crowd enjoyed the festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairman and children of Youngstown called at Free Rupert's Sunday. Mrs. Jacob Brubaker of near Leontonia visited Louis Greasel's Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Beard spent Sunday with her son Ralph in Youngstown. Beaver township people should be happy over the prosperous condition of things in general. Her farmers should not complain. It's true they must work hard, but they can all feel repaid for their hard labor, according to the reports Beaver township has eleven good points—ahead in wheat, rye, ensilage corn, in number of silos, potatoes, clover, milk, butter, eggs, apple orchards and its apples. It uses the most commercial fertilizer. Oh, yes, you must use something if you want to reap in plenty.

Mrs. Joshua Osborne of Youngstown called on relatives and friends here last Saturday afternoon. Paul McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Allen Osborne and sister Ada of Youngstown were on Ralph Bieber's farm last Saturday afternoon hunting groundhogs.

Mrs. Lydia Ann Heckman of Youngstown spent last Thursday night with her niece, Mrs. Henry Hess. Paul Messerly, wife and baby of East Palestine visited at Free Rupert's and Curt Swank's Saturday and Sunday as did Carl Clay and family of Gettysburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Getz of Washingtonville visited Lewis Greasel and C. P. Moff Monday. Why don't some of our farmers who recently took a motor trip up into Geauga county give readers of the Dispatch a writeup of the things they saw and learned while there? Or didn't they learn anything they did not already know?

Mr. and Mrs. Sell of Youngstown were here Tuesday and got cherries at William Geis'. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith were in Youngstown Tuesday afternoon.

Paul Messerly was in Canfield Wednesday morning. D. W. Galehouse, superintendent of the county experiment farm, will address an open meeting of New Buffalo grange next Tuesday evening and it is hoped there will be a large attendance. Mr. Galehouse is always worth hearing.

A considerable force of men is employed at the plant of the American Fire Clay Co., west of the village. Corn is now making rapid growth, weather conditions being more favorable the past ten days.

Weather is warming up and the chances seem to favor a run of summer weather.

BERLIN CENTER

July 14—Warren Kline, wife and daughter were Alliance visitors last Saturday. Mr. Wilson and family of Youngstown are visiting old friends in this place.

Quite a number from here attended the Methodist outing at Silver Lake today. Eli Rakestraw and wife, Tod Baringer and wife and John Smith and family motored to Alliance last Saturday.

The North Lima band gave some very fine selections from the band stand on the Diamond Saturday evening.

Raymond Miller is in Berry, Kentucky, for about four weeks, assisting as musical director in the evangelistic campaign being carried on in that place.

Robert Feicht of Akron spent last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Detrow. J. E. Glenn was in Massillon on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Miller and son were guests of Columbiana relatives several days. Oscar McCurley and wife and Paul Gardner of New York were visitors at J. S. Miller's last week.

While returning from the village to their homes last Tuesday evening, W. E. Meender and C. A. Summers were struck by an automobile going toward Youngstown, driven by Homer Dyce of the city. The men had stepped to the side of the road, to allow the car to pass, and the driver, who was running on the left side of the street, says he did not see them in time to stop the machine. Mr. Meender being in advance of Mr. Summers, was hit first, but did not receive the full force of the blow, owing to his jumping to one side. Mr. Summers was thrown to the ground and run over, receiving serious cuts on the head and severe bruises. Both men are recovering nicely.

Miss Havell of Marion was a guest of Miss Maud Hobson last week. Mrs. Michael Botesch has returned from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, at Lore City. Her brother Archie came with her for a visit.

CLARKSVILLE

July 14—Rev. Lewis Cost and wife of Rochester, N. Y., H. L. Welkart and family and Miss Lois Cook of Canfield spent Friday at M. E. Huffman's. Elsie Welkart and Frank Chandler and wife of Lisbon spent Sunday at Delmer Roller's.
